

Agribusiness in Schools South Island Conference

*Come for the inspiration.
Stay for the innovation!*

Profitability. Sustainability. Competitiveness.

FUTURE SHAPERS

Pūwāiri te Ahumāra

fresh produce group

NETWORKS OF EXPERTISE

Programme Overview

Tuesday September 22nd

Lincoln University Memorial Hall

Schedule

8:00 AM	Registration Join us for a breakfast muffin, tea or coffee
8:30 AM	Keynote Speaker Hear industry insights from Professor Hamish Gow
9:30 AM	Curriculum Updates Updates on the new curriculum and what to expect from the rollout.
10:10 AM	Morning Tea
10:30 AM	Session One Food innovation for Agribusiness with Dr Keegan Burrow
11:30 AM	Practical Workshop with Melanie Simmons
12:15 PM	Lunch
1:00 PM	Session Two Agribusiness and Entrepreneurship with Dr Faith Jeremiah: From Opportunities to Enterprise
2:00 PM	Session Three Global insights with DairyNZ Chief Executive, Campbell Parker
2:45 PM	Afternoon Tea
3:00 PM	Session Four Agri-food supply chain management and marketing with Dr Nic Lees
4:30 PM	Closing remarks
5:00 PM	Finish, leave for accommodation
6:00 PM	Fig Restaurant and Bar, Hotel Elms

Speakers

Prof. Hamish Gow

Sir Graeme Harrison
Professorial Chair in Global Value Chains
and Trade at Lincoln University

Dr Keegan Burrow

Lecturer in Food
Biochemistry at Lincoln
University

Dr Faith Jeremiah

Lecturer in Entrepreneurship &
Innovation at Lincoln
University

Dr Nic Lees

Senior Lecturer in Agribusiness Management at Lincoln University

Campbell Parker

Chief Executive at DairyNZ

Showcase

Lincoln University

New Zealand's specialist land-based university, with a proud history of educating leaders in agriculture and agribusiness.